

Spring and warmer temperatures can bring unpredictable weather with storms, hail and high winds and hazards on the roadways like potholes and standing water.

Check your lights Avoid standing water Replace your wiper Be cautious of Slow down during blades potholes rainstorms Worn-out wiper blades Since spring rain Hitting a nasty bump in Even light mist can mix Driving through puddles are less effective at hinders driving visibility, with road dust to create the road can hurt your can obscure your vision clearing away water. make sure all your tires or even throw your slippery conditions. You or cause you to should also increase the Check your wiper lights work, including alignment off. Making hydroplane and lose blades and replace headlights, taillights, sure your tires are at the distance between you control. If you can't drive them if necessary – backup lights, turn appropriate levels can and the car in front of you around a puddle, slow to avoid a potential down and if you feel your usually once a year. signals, parking lights help mitigate the and brake lights. damage from potholes accident. wheels start to slip, stay and bumps. calm, ease off the gas and don't brake

